

DATA INNOVATIONS LLC
THIRD PARTY SOFTWARE LIST

Data Innovations LLC's ("DI") list of Third Party Software (embedded, bundled, distributed and open source) included in or with the license of DI's software and solutions is currently in the process of being updated. If your company is an existing customer or a potential new customer requiring the list for review prior to licensing a DI software/solution, please send a request to the following: dina-contracts@datainnovations.com.

In the email request, please indicate the following:

- 1) whether your company is an existing customer or potential new customer of DI
- 2) legal name and address of the entity who holds (or will hold) the license to the DI software
- 3) reason for the request of the third party software list;
- 4) the specific DI software or solution that has been already, or is being, licensed; and
- 5) contact name, title and phone number and email address for the person who will be receiving the Third Party Software list

NOTE: If you are a potential new customer or an existing customer that has not yet executed any form of license agreement directly with DI as of the date of the email request, a non-disclosure agreement will be required to be put in place prior to the Third Party Software list being distributed for review.
